

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

ROBERT V. BAER,

RECEIVED

Plaintiff,

FEB 19 2007

Civil Action No. 02-2334 (JAP)

v.

AT 8:30 M

WILLIAM T. WALSH

SPECIAL VERDICT FORM

DAVID CHASE, DC ENTERPRISES, INC., a Delaware corporation, and JOHN DOES A-Z, Defendants.

1. Did Plaintiff prove by a preponderance of the evidence that Robert Baer performed services for David Chase with a reasonable expectation of compensation, and not as a favor to David Chase?

Yes /

No _____

2. Did Plaintiff prove by a preponderance of the evidence that Robert Baer performed services for David Chase with a reasonable expectation of compensation at the time he performed the services?

Yes /

No _____

3. Did Plaintiff prove by a preponderance of the evidence that Robert Baer had a reasonable expectation that he would receive monetary compensation for performing services, and not solely the hope that he might obtain future opportunities in the entertainment business through David Chase?

Yes _____

No _____

4. Did Plaintiff prove by a preponderance of the evidence that Robert Baer had a reasonable expectation that he would be compensated by David Chase, rather than by Brillstein-Grey or some other company?

Yes _____

No _____

5. If your answer to any of Questions 1, 2, 3, or 4 above is "NO," you must return a verdict in favor of the Defendants. If your answer to each of Questions 1, 2, 3, or 4 above is "YES," what is the fair market value of the services Robert Baer provided to David Chase (the amount others in the entertainment industry would pay Robert Baer or someone else for providing those or similar services)?
